<http://www.alandsbanken.fi/info/opencms/England/en/about/result/result.html> Future outlook The Bank of Åland expects its net operating profit in 2015 to be better than in 2014. The Bank of Åland is especially dependent on the performance of the fixed income and stock markets. There are clear concerns regarding economic performance in several important markets as well as geopolitical worries, especially due to developments in Ukraine and the Middle East. For this reason, there is significant uncertainty in the current forecast for the future. Stock exchange communication languages The Bank of Åland has decided that in the future, the fulfilment of the Bank's disclosure obligation via stock exchange releases will occur in Swedish and English. Important disclosures such as interim reports will continue to be available in Finnish via press releases and on our website. Press releases will thus continue to be published in Swedish, Finnish and English.
